GIVEN BANQUET AND CUP.

Spencer H. Over Remembered by Office Employees and Collectors.

A farewell banquet was tendered Spencer H. Over by the office employees and collectors of the Narragansett Brewing company, Providence, to express their regret at his resignation of the position of general manager of the Narragansett Brewing company. After a delightful repast, Arthur McCarty, the toastmaster of the evening, expressed in a few words the deep regret felt by all the force at Mr. Over's departure. He emphasized the fact that each and every member of the organization felt the loss of Mr. Over as his friend, and took a personal interest in him and that they could always depend upon a square deal from him in his courteous consideration.

As a token of their regard, esteem and good wishes, he tendered Mr. Over a silver loving cup, suitably engraved to commemorate the occasion. Over, coming with this substantial token from his co-workers, Mr. Over blushing responded. After expressing his appreciation of the loyal support which the organization had given him as general manager, he congratulated Emil Schierholz, his assistant general manager, on his promotion to the general management. He expressed his appreciation of the loyal support which Mr. Schierholz has always given the manager of the brewery, and predicted for him a great success in his new responsibilities.

Mr. Schierholz voiced his regrets at losing so able a chief, reviewed his past service under him and expressed his regret at Mr. Over's departure and the pleasure of having his able assistant, Mr. Schierholz, advanced to fill his position.

Every member of the party made a speech, expressing in his own way his regret at Mr. Over's departure and the pleasure of having his able assistant, Mr. Schierholz, advanced to fill his position.

School of Whales.

A small school of whales was sighted off Quonochontong Beach east of Watch Hill last week by passengers on the steamer Block Island. ### Congressman Higgins Makes Speech in House Urging that Action be Deferred Until December—Suggests a Stamp Tax.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

Washington, July 17.—While the house of representatives was in committee on the whole, having under consideration the urgent deficiency bill, Mr. Higgins secured the floor and made a few remarks on the subject of the stamp tax.

Mr. Higgins said:

Mr. Speaker, Being impressed with the inequitable features of the corporation tax, and believing that the present system is a burden upon the people, I am desirous of securing the repeal of this tax.

At present there is no uniformity in our tax laws. There are as many different systems as there are different states. In Connecticut, for example, there has been no direct state tax in that state during the last fiscal year.

IN AGONY WITH ECZEMA

Whole Body a Mass of Raw, Bleeding, Torturing Humor—Hoped Death Would End Fearful Suffering.

IN DESPAIR: CURED BY CUTICURA

"Terrible eczema broke out on my head and kept spreading until it covered my whole body. I was almost a solid mass of sores and looked more like a piece of raw beef than a human being. The pain and agony seemed more than I could bear. My clothes would stick to the raw and bleeding flesh, making me cry out from the pain. I did not think I could live and wanted death to end my frightful sufferings. But oh! what blessed relief I
